

Renters Resources

Landlord Tenant Disputes

Dispute with Your Landlord?

Disputes--actual and potential--come in all shapes and sizes for landlords and tenants. Whether it's a disagreement over a rent increase, late rental payment, questions regarding responsibility for repairs or return of a security deposit, rarely should lawyers and litigation be the first choice for resolving a landlord-tenant dispute. Here are some useful resources and links to help residents with a variety of legal and resident right issues:

Colorado Tenant's Rights

Landlord Tenant Disputes: Phone: (303) 831-1935

Housing Advocacy Coalition

Organizes low-income tenants to become leaders in the fight to preserve and create low-income housing, focusing on project-based Section 8 tenants. Works with all renters to meet state representatives and senators to improve tenants' rights:

Address: 2023 E. Bijou
Colorado Springs, CO 80909
Phone: 719-634-0738
Fax: 719-634-0739

Legal Aid Society Landlord/Tenant Counseling

Provides legal information and counseling about landlord-tenant disputes to low income residents and seniors living in the Denver Metro Area.

Address: 1905 Sherman Street, Suite 400
Denver, CO 80203-1181
Phone: 303-837-1321
Looking for Military Housing? Military Housing <http://www.ahrn.com/>
Post Locator 719-526-0227
Housing in Colorado Springs or Pueblo www.apartmentbluebook.com www.apartmentguide.com www.apartments.com
www.apartmentsetc.com
www.aptsforrent.com www.rentingcolorado.com www.rentapartments.info www.move.com
www.premierfurnishedhousing.com
www.colospringsrelocating.com Information about Colorado Springs and Pueblo Colorado Springs website

Colorado Springs Tourism Guide

Pueblo website
Publications
Colorado Springs Business Journal
Colorado Real Estate Journal
Rocky Mountain News
Colorado Springs Gazette Telegraph
Pueblo Chieftan

Chambers of Commerce
Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce

Colorado Springs Hispanic Chamber of Commerce

Pueblo Chamber of Commerce